DESCRIPTION: This program assists students in passing the ISTEP+ test by teaching them in line with Indiana Academic Standards using proven instructional strategies and methods of Harvard's Project Zero research, Teaching for Understanding (TfU) pedagogy. Initial assessment will involve application of objective and subjective tools and methods. The TfU framework utilizes extensive on-going assessment process which includes daily observation and 24/7 on-line access to assist students with any academic issues. At the end of each project that addresses specific ISTEP goals and standards, a progress report will be sent to the referring school and the parent.
